Rock Hill College of Ellicott City, Md., went down to defeat before the Gallaudet nine yesterday on the Kendall Green diamond by the score of 5 to 4, in one o the fastest battles seen on Kendall Green field this season. It was really a beautiful pitchers' battle between "Big Six" Rasmussen of Gallaudet and Schmidiger of Rock Hill. Rasmussen, however, had a shade the better of the duel, allowing but four scattered hits and striking out seven. On the other hand Schmidiger struck out nine and allowed six hits. Gallaudet scored in the opening session hit. Three errors in this inning allowed
